The Contractor is not and shall not represent itself as an employer, employee, servant, agent or partner of the University. Unless otherwise expressly provided for in the Contract, neither Party is authorised to act in the name of, or on behalf of, or otherwise bind the other Party.

23. Assignment and Sub-contracting

23.1 Unless otherwise provided for in the Contract, the Contractor shall not, without the prior written consent of the University, assign, transfer, sub-contract or otherwise dispose of any of its interests, rights, benefits or obligations under the Contract. The performance of the Contract by the Contractor shall be personal to it. Any person purportedly appointed by the Contractor as agent shall be treated as sub-contractor for the purpose of this Clause 23 and for the whole of the Contract.

23.2 A sub-contracting of the Contract or any part of it shall not relieve the Contractor of any of its obligations or duties under the Contract, and the Contractor shall remain fully liable to the University and be responsible for the acts, defaults, neglect and omissions of its employees, officers, agents, representatives, sub-contractors (at whatever level) and employees, officers, representatives and agents of any such sub-contractors as though they were its own.

25. Disclosure of Information

The Contractor hereby irrevocably authorises, consents and agrees that the University may, whenever it considers appropriate or upon request by any person (written or otherwise) and without any further reference to the Contractor, disclose to any person in such form and manner as the University considers fit:

26. Publicity

- 26.1 Whether before, during or after the expiry or termination of the Contract Period, the Contractor shall not use the University's name, logo, emblem, symbol, trade name, trademark or visual identity or any variation or derivation thereof, whether in any document, publication, advertisement, activity, publicity material or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the University.
- 26.2 Subject to Clause 26.1, the Contractor shall submit to the University for approval all the proposed advertising or other publicity materials relating to the Contract or any products supplied or other work done in connection with the Contract wherein the University's name, logo, emblem, symbol, trade name, trademark or visual identity or any variation or derivation thereof is mentioned or used, or language is used from which a connection with the University can reasonably be inferred or implied.
- 26.3 Notwithstanding any consent or approval given under Clause 26.1 or 26.2, whenever required by the University, the Contractor shall promptly remove or procure to remove all advertisements, documents, publication and publicity or other materials relating to the Contract wherein the University's name, logo, emblem, symbol, trade name, trademark or visual identity or any variation or derivation thereof is used, or language is mentioned or used from which a connection with the University can reasonably be inferred or implied and the Contractor must comply with such request.

27. Force Majeure

- 27.1 If the Contractor becomes aware of any matter likely to constitute a Force Majeure Event, the Contractor shall forthwith notify the University in writing of that matter and all relevant particulars.
- 27.2 Within three (3) days after the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, the Contractor shall notify the University in writing of the full particulars of the Force Majeure Event including its nature, extent, effect on the Contractor's ability to perform the Contractor's obligations under the Contract and likely duration of such effect. In the event of an occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, the University may on its own issue a notice to the Contractor noting the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event and requiring the Contractor to suspend all or any of its obligations under the Contract. A notice issued by the Contractor or the University pursuant to this Clause is hereinafter referred to as the "Suspension Notice".
- 27.3 Following the issuance of a Suspension Notice by the Contractor or the University, the Contractor shall keep the University informed in writing at reasonable intervals or upon the request of the University of:
- (a) the likely duration of the relevant Force Majeure Event and of its effect on the Contractor's ability to perform the Contractor's obligations under the Contract;
 - (b) the actions taken or proposed to be taken by the Contractor to mitigate or minimise the effects of that Force Majeure Event; and
 - (c) any other matters relevant to that Force Majeure Event or the Contractor's performance of the Contract affected by that Force Majeure Event.

- 27.4 To the extent that the performance of obligations by the Contractor under the Contract is prevented by a Force Majeure Event, the Contractor's performance of such obligations will, subject to Clause 27.5, be suspended to that extent from the date that the Contractor or the University gives a Suspension Notice in respect of that Force Majeure Event until the Contractor ceases to be so prevented ("Cessation Date"). Notwithstanding anything in the Contract to the contrary, as soon as the University issues a Suspension Notice to the Contractor, the Contractor shall forthwith suspend the performance of its obligations under the Contract to the extent specified in the Suspension Notice.
- 27.5 During the suspension of any obligations under Clause 27.4:
- (a) the Contractor shall use its best endeavours (including incurring any reasonable expenses and re-deploying its manpower and resources) to remove or mitigate the effect of each Force Majeure Event on the Contractor's performance of its obligations under the Contract;
 - (b) the University may make alternative arrangements for the performance of any suspended obligations, whether by another person or otherwise, without compensation to the Contractor;
 - (c) the Contractor shall not be entitled to any payment of money, cost, fee, compensation, expense or charge or such pro rata portion thereof in respect of the suspended obligations for the suspended period, or in respect of any loss or damage arising from such suspension of obligations, or in respect of the costs or expenses incurred or actions taken by the Contractor to remove or mitigate the effect of the Force Majeure Event; and
 - (d) the Contractor shall continue to fully and punctually perform and observe all of its other obligations which are not affected by the Force Majeure Event in full accordance with the requirements of the Contract including those obligations which are not suspended, and to that extent, all the terms and conditions of the Contract shall continue to apply and be in full force and effect.
- 27.6 As soon as the relevant Force Majeure Event has terminated, the Contractor shall forthwith notify the University in writing of the Cessation Date, or the University may on its own, or after consultation with the Contractor, by notice in writing to the Contractor, determine the appropriate Cessation Date. The Contractor shall immediately after the Cessation Date resume performance of the suspended obligations in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Contract. In the event of any disagreement between the University and the Contractor on the appropriate Cessation Date, the University's decision shall be final in the absence of manifest error.
- 27.7 Should suspension of the performance by the Contractor of its obligations under the Contract persist or be likely to persist as a result of a Force Majeure Event, the University shall be entitled to terminate the Contract pursuant to Clause 15.3.
- 27.8 The Contractor shall ensure that provisions similar to this Clause 27 are incorporated in all its contracts with its sub-contractors made for the performance of its obligations under the Contract.

28. Audit

The Contractor shall keep and maintain until seven (7) years after the expiry or termination of the Contract, or such longer period as may be agreed by the Parties, full and accurate records in relation to the Contract including the Services executed under it, all expenditure reimbursed by the University, and all payments made by the University. If requested by the University, the Contractor shall afford the University or its representatives, free of any charge, access to the records and to make and retain copies thereof as may be requested by the University or its representatives.

29. Notices

- 29.1 Each notice, demand, invoice, correspondence or other communication given or made under the Contract by a Party shall be in writing and delivered or sent to the other Party at its postal address, facsimile number or email address set out in Appendix 1 of Part 8 of the Tender Form (or such other postal address, facsimile number or email address as the addressee has by no less than seven (7) working days' prior written notice specified to the other Party).
- 29.2 Such notices, demands or other communications shall be addressed as provided in Clause 29.1 and, if so addressed, shall be deemed to have been duly given or made as follows:

 - (b) if sent by post, two (2) working days (for any place in Hong Kong) and seven (7) working days (for any place outside Hong Kong) after the date of posting;
 - (c) if sent by facsimile during normal business hours on a working day, when despatched with confirmed receipt as evidenced by the transmission report generated at the end of the transmission of such facsimile by the facsimile machine used for such transmission; or
 - (d) if sent by email during normal business hours on a working day, upon despatch unless the sender has received a non-delivery notification from his own computer system.
- 29.3 Nothing in Clause 29.2 shall affect the validity of any notice, demand or other communication despatched outside normal business hours. Any such notice, demand or other communication despatched outside normal business hours which fulfills the conditions specified in Clause 29.2 shall be deemed to have been duly given or made on the next working day following the date of such personal delivery, posting, facsimile or email.

30. Entire Agreement

- 30.1 The Contract constitutes the whole agreement between the Parties with respect of the subject matter hereof and supersedes any previous agreements, discussions, representations, understandings or arrangements between them relating to the subject matter hereof. The Contractor acknowledges that in entering into the Contract, it has not relied on any statements, warranties or representations given or made by the University. On the other hand, the University has relied on the Warranties when entering into the Contract.
- 30.2 All of the provisions of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the execution of the Services and the issuance of any written notice that the University has unconditionally accepted those Services (except insofar as those obligations which have been fully performed).

- 30.3 By accepting the appointment as the Contractor under this Contract, it is agreed that the Contractor shall agree and consent irrevocably to the novation and transfer by the University of all its rights and obligations stated or accrued herein to any related party so designated by the University (the “Transferee”) (the “Novation”). Upon receipt of the notice of the Novation issued jointly by the University and the Transferee, the Contractor agrees and accepts that the University shall be released and discharged from the Contract, and the Contractor shall release and discharge the University upon the terms of the Transferee’s agreement to perform the Contract and to be bound by the terms of the Contract in place of the University, without any further agreement or consent in writing or the execution of any document by the Contractor.

31. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

The Contract and all matters arising from or connected with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“Hong Kong”) and the Parties hereby agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Hong Kong in relation to any matters or disputes arising out of or in connection with the Contract. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties agree to first adopt non-litigation means to endeavor to settle such matter or dispute amicably in a collaborative manner by good faith negotiations.

32. Severability

If any provision of the Contract is found or held by any authority or court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, it will be rendered ineffective to the extent of such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability and such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of the Contract, all of which shall remain in full force and effect.

33. Waiver

- 33.1 Time shall be of the essence of the Contract but no failure, delay, forbearance or indulgence by any Party to the Contract to exercise any right, power or remedy available to it under the Contract, at law or in equity shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of the same preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. Any right, power or remedy of each Party under the Contract shall be cumulative and shall not be exclusive of any other rights, powers or remedies provided by the Contract, at law or in equity. Without limiting the foregoing, no waiver by a Party of any breach by the other Party of any provision hereof shall be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of that or any other provision hereof.
- 33.2 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 33.1, any right of termination of the Contract or any other right, power or remedy of whatsoever nature conferred upon the University under the Contract shall be exercisable by the University in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights, powers and remedies available to it under the Contract, at law or in equity (and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, shall not extinguish any right to damages to which the University may be entitled in respect of the breach of the Contract) and no exercise of or failure or delay to exercise a right of termination by the University shall constitute a waiver by the University of such right of termination or any other right, power or remedy.

- 33.3 No waiver of any right, power or remedy of either Party shall be valid unless signed by that Party in writing and containing an express statement that it is a waiver pursuant to this Clause.

34. Assistance in Legal Proceedings
